A photograph of a decomposed animal carcass, possibly a dog, lying on a blue tarp. The carcass is the central focus, showing significant decomposition with dark, mottled fur and exposed underlying tissues. A white evidence tag with the text "BA - 34" is placed on the side of the carcass. Another white tag with a black double-headed vertical arrow is positioned near the carcass's midsection. In the background, a person wearing a white protective suit and white gloves is visible, with their hands near the carcass. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting an outdoor or semi-enclosed environment at night or in low light. In the bottom right corner, there is a white tag with the text "K021-7707".
