SERB VICTIMS OF WAR AND POST-WAR IN THE TERRITORIES OF CROATIA AND THE FORMER REPUBLIC OF SERBIAN KRAJINA (RSK) 1990–1998

Introduction

1. General background

The information contained in this annex is based on the research of the VERITAS Documentation and Information Centre,<sup>1</sup> which has been collecting documents on the suffering and plight of Serbs in the territories of Croatia and the former RSK in war time and post-war period, or from 1990–1998, and has been doing so since 1993.

The fragmentation and lack of own state administration has rendered difficult the gathering and collation of information on Serb victims in these territories in the most recent war.

The information presented in this annex shows the situation as established in VERITAS research into Serb victims in the territories of Croatia and the former RSK (United Nations Protected Areas) between 1990 and 1998 as at 31 October 2009.

2. Methods

By gathering information on killed and missing Serbs on the basis of all known methods and taking into account all available evidence such as information from families; media reports; reports of non-governmental, governmental and international organizations; reports of international peacekeeping forces; memoirs; transcripts; witness interviews; visits to execution and burial sites; comparing lists of missing persons with lists of refugees and the census; publication of lists and information on the missing in the media, VERITAS has made its own records of killed and missing Serbs.

The compiled list contains the names of killed/missing Serbs in the territories of Croatia and the former Republic of Serbian Krajina who were killed or missing in the period from 1990–1998 in the war or post-war period in the territories of Croatia, including the territory of the former RSK or UNPA (areas protected by the United Nations) as well as in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina (in the fighting with the Croatian Army, Croatian Defence Council forces and the Army of Bosnia and Herzegovina in the border zone or in refugee convoys bombed by aircraft).

3. Basic criteria

The basic criteria for the compilation of the VERITAS list were:

- a) That the victims resided or fought in the territories of Croatia and the RSK;
- b) That they died or went missing in the war or in the post-war period in the territories of either the Republic of Croatia or the RSK, or in refugee convoys or in Croatian and Muslim-run camps, prisons or detention camps; and
- c) That it is certain or very likely that their death/disappearance was related to the war incidents in 1990–1998 period.

<sup>1</sup> VERITAS is a non-governmental organization which was set up at the end of 1993 by citizens in the territory of the then RSK (former UNPA areas). Knin was the seat of the organization until the exodus of Krajina residents in August 1995, and since then it is based in Belgrade and has offices in Banja Luka, BiH; For its work VERITAS was commended by the United Nations (26 December 1999), ICRC (28 December 1999) and ICTY (2 March 2000). All these commendations can be found on the web site www.veritas.org.rs

4. Classification of victims

If the family has confirmed identification (made by using classical methods or DNA tests) and collected the remains or if the family agreed that the remains continued to rest in their primary burial sites, such persons were classified as “killed/buried”.

In all other cases, regardless of information of the death, persons were classified as missing. According to this criterion, VERITAS has recorded (internally) missing as three groups:

- a) missing persons, if there is no information whether they are dead or alive;
- b) missing/killed persons, if there is information on their death but not on their burial sites;
- c) missing/buried persons, if there is information both on their death and on their burial sites, but if their remains have not been turned over to their families.

5. Killed and missing Serbs according to VERITAS records

5.1. On the basis of the above criteria, VERITAS verified 6,792 killed and missing persons until 31 October 2009.

Of the total number of those killed and missing, so far, 4,613 persons have been buried (families confirmed their identification, collected and buried their remains), whereas 2,179 persons are still considered as missing (according to groups: missing – 1,132; missing/killed – 496; missing/buried – 551).

In view of the passage of time and the cessation of hostilities, it is highly unlikely that anyone listed as missing is still alive, so that those missing should be regarded as killed.

5.2. Killed

According to VERITAS records (the situation on 31 October 2009) in the most recent war and the post-war period (1990–1998) at least 4,613 persons (68% of the total number of those killed and missing) were killed in the territories of Croatia and the former RSK.

According to sex: 4,200 (91%) men and 413 (9%) women;

According to age: 42 people under 18 years of age (1%) were killed; 3,561 people between 18 and 60 (77%) were also killed; while 599 people aged over 60 (13%) were in this category as well; 411 killed persons (9%) have not been identified as belonging to a specific age group;

According to status: 1,029 civilians (22%) were killed; 3,415 military men (74%) and 169 police officers (4%) were also killed.

According to the year of death: 3 people were killed in 1990; 1,803 people (39%) were killed in 1991; 770 (17%) people were killed in 1992; 755 (16%) people were killed in 1993; 236 (5%) people were killed in 1994; 1,018 (22%) people were killed in 1995; 16 people were killed in 1996; 5 people were killed in 1997 and 7 people were killed in 1998.

According to regions of death: 624 people were killed in the Banija region; 833 people were killed in the region of Eastern Slavonia; 730 people were killed in the Lika region; 357 people were killed in the Kordun region; 1,305 people were killed in the region of Northern Dalmatia; 470 people were killed in the region of Western Slavonia; 48 people were killed in the interior of Croatia, while 237 people were killed in the territory of BiH.

Those killed were mainly Serbs (only small number belonged to other ethnic groups which lived or fought together with Serbs in the RSK).

5.3. Missing

Currently (31 October 2009), the VERITAS list of missing persons contains 2,179 persons (32% of the total number of those killed and missing).

According to sex: 1,602 (74%) were men and 577 (26%) were women.

According to status: The fate is still unknown for 1,453 (67%) civilians, 707 (32%) military men and 19 (1%) police officers.

According to age: In the category under 18, 16 persons are still considered missing; in the category between ages 18 and 60, still missing are 1,191 (55%) persons; there were 835 (38%) persons aged 60 and over when they went missing; and the age of 137 (6%) persons is not known.

According to the year of disappearance: 703 (32%) persons went missing in 1991; 108 (5%) persons went missing in 1992; 37 persons went missing in 1993; 8 persons went missing in 1994; 1,295 (60%) persons went missing in 1995; 22 persons went missing in 1996; 6 persons went missing in 1997.

According to the region of disappearance: 522 persons went missing in the region of Banija; 146 persons went missing in Eastern Slavonia; 393 persons went missing in Lika; 133 persons went missing in Kordun; 280 persons went missing in Northern Dalmatia; 592 persons went missing in Western Slavonia; 55 persons went missing in the interior of Croatia, while 58 persons went missing in the territory of BiH.

The missing were mainly Serbs (a smaller number of them belong to other ethnic groups which lived or fought alongside Serbs in the RSK).

5.4. Total

From the above information it transpires that 6,792 people in total were killed and missing on the Serbian warring party and in the post-war period in the territories of Croatia and the former RSK:

According to sex: 5,802 (85%) men; 990 (15%) women;

According to status: 4,122 (61%) military men; 2,482 (37%) civilians and 188 (3%) police officers;

According to age: 58 (1%) under 18; 4,752 (70%) between ages 18 and 60; 1,434 (21%) over 60; the age of 548 (8%) persons is not known;

According to the year of death/disappearance: 3 in 1990; 2,506 (37%) in 1991; 878 (13%) in 1992; 792 (12%) in 1993; 244 (4%) in 1994; 2,313 (34%) in 1995; 38 (1%) in 1996;<sup>2</sup> 11 in 1997; 7 in 1998.

According to region:<sup>3</sup> 1,146 (17%) in Banija; 979 (14%) in Eastern Slavonia; 1,123 (17%) in Lika; 490 (7%) in Kordun; 1,589 (23%) in Northern Dalmatia; 1,071 (16%) in Western Slavonia; 103 (2%) in Croatia and 295 (4%) in BiH.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>2</sup> The murders of Serbs who were mainly elderly people that remained behind or returned from exile continued in the next few years. During 1996, there were 38 ethnically motivated murders; in 1997 there were 11 such murders and in 1998, there were 7 of them. Of the 56 people killed in this period, 28 bodies have not yet been recovered.

<sup>3</sup> The place of death or the place of last sighting or hearing from the victim was taken as the criterion for the classification of victims by region.

<sup>4</sup> Those killed or missing in the fighting with the Croatian Army, HVO soldiers or the Army of BiH in the border belt or in refugee convoys bombarded by aircraft. Nine people including five children were killed on 7 August 1995 in a refugee column shelled by Croatian aircraft, near Bravsko, between Petrovac and Kljuc. This refugee convoy was headed from North Dalmatia and Lika via Martinbrod over the Una River crossing into Republika Srpska. The convoy of refugees fleeing Kordun and Banija headed for the Una River and crossed the bridge between Dvor and Novi into Republika Srpska. A part of this refugee convoy was also bombarded by Croatian aircraft near the village of Svodno, killing at least 3 people and injuring another 15.

Comparing the number of victims with the number of inhabitants according to the Main Staff of the Serbian Army of Krajina (SVK) in June 1993,<sup>5</sup> most people (3.7%) were killed in Western Slavonia, followed by Lika (2.3%), Northern Dalmatia (1.8%), Banija (1.4%), Kordun (0.9%) and Eastern Slavonia (0.7%).

These data do not reflect true state of affairs considering the migration of the Serbian population in Croatia until the time the census was taken.<sup>6</sup>

Unfortunately, this VERITAS list of those killed and missing is not complete. The verification process is now going on for further 350 or so persons who have very likely been killed or missing during the war in the territories of Croatia and the RSK (UNPA).

This list contains does not contain either killed/missing former JNA soldiers who were killed/missing in the territory of Croatia, if they were not born or did not live in Croatia, and there were 307 of them (95 were killed and 212 went missing) according to the records of the Commission for Missing Persons of the Government of the Republic of Serbia. The list of the Serbian Government's Commission does not include the names of those JNA soldiers whose remains were handed over to their families immediately after they were killed. VERITAS does not have information on persons killed who belong to this category. According to some Serbian sources, more than 1,000 people belonging to this category were killed.

6. Serbian victims and perpetrators of crimes against them

6.1. Uniformed persons as victims

A total of 4,310 uniformed people<sup>7</sup> (4,122 soldiers and 188 police officers) were killed/missing on the Serbian side.

6.1.1. Killed by the enemy – direct victims

A total of 3,747 (87%) were killed by the enemy. Of this number 2,216 were killed after the RSK areas had been placed under UN protection.

A total of 3,495 (81%) were killed by the Croatian armed forces (HV). Of these, so far, it has been established that at least 365 were deliberately killed (upon surrender, laying down arms or abandoning positions and leaving for Republika Srpska or in the territory of Republika Srpska); at least 144 were killed by gunfire or by air raids; at least 70 died as a result of the infiltration of subversive terrorist groups (DTG); at least 125 died in hospitals of injuries sustained in the fighting; at least 149 were killed after they had been captured and the rest (2,637) lost their lives in combat, of the latter 1,196 were killed after 19 May 1992, following the pull-out of the Yugoslav National Army (JNA) from the territories of Croatia and the RSK.

From the time the RSK was placed under UN protection in early 1992, a total of 1,964 uniformed men were mortally wounded on assignment (while defending the protected areas) by the Croatian side.

<sup>5</sup> During the war, no census was taken in the RSK, and according to the data of the Main Staff of the SVK of June 1993, a total of 433,595 inhabitants lived in the territory of the RSK, of whom 82,406 in Banija; 51,000 in Kordun; 48,389 in Lika; 87,000 in Northern Dalmatia; 135,800 in Eastern Slavonia and 29,000 in Western Slavonia.

<sup>6</sup> The first larger-scale exodus of Serbs took place already in the autumn of 1991, in Western Slavonia, when they left the municipalities of Daruvar, Grubisino Polje, Podravska Slatina and some parts of Pakrac. This exodus resulted in a large number of victims.

<sup>7</sup> The Main Staff of the Serbian Army of Krajina analyzed the list of 2,631 killed JNA soldiers, TO forces and SVK fighters from 1990-1994 and established that there were 35 active military officers; 63 active soldiers; 90 police officers; 80 civilians; 10 persons without personal data; 2,221 men of military age including TO members and local guards who can only provisionally be regarded as soldiers, were all on that list.

A total of 7 men died at the hands of the Croatian Defence Council – the Army of the State Community of Herzeg-Bosnia (HVO), six of them on assignment and one in hospital as a result of the wounds sustained;

A total of 142 (4%) died at the hands of the Army of Bosnia and Herzegovina (ABiH), 17 of these were deliberately killed; 33 died at the hands of infiltrated DTG; 5 died in hospitals from the wounds sustained, while 11 were killed after they had been taken prisoner and 75 of them, in action.

For 103 (3%) persons, who also died on the enemy side, (57 of them in action; 26 after they had been captured; 9 were deliberately killed; 11 died in an unspecified way), so far it has not been possible to establish with any certainty who killed them, taking into account that the HV, HVO and ABiH conducted joint (combined) operations.

6.1.2. Killed on the Serbian side – indirect victims

SVK soldiers and RSK police officers also died on the Serbian side. There were a total of 563 such persons (13% of all victims on the Serbian side).

A total of 82 persons died while in combat action (in their own mine fields, of landmines as a result of mishandling of firearms, forcing of water courses, etc.);

A total of 104 people died in willful killings (by firearms, planting of explosives; setting victims alight, by hanging, etc.) in showdowns between SVK soldiers and police officers or between paramilitaries and mafia groups;

A total of 50 people died as a result of unlawful killing/manslaughter (involuntary killing by fellow soldiers while in action);

Suicides (voluntary taking of their own lives by firearms, hanging, drowning, explosives and otherwise) were committed by 96 persons.

A total of 77 people died in transportation (while leaving for or returning from their positions, including air transport);

A total of 110 people died from natural causes (death occurred while they were in action as a result of heart attack or stroke or otherwise);

A total of 29 people died in hospitals (death occurred as a result of being wounded by fellow soldiers or as a result of various diseases related to combat action);

A total of 15 people listed as killed/missing who are unaccounted for as regards the manner in which they died, died from unknown causes in Serb-controlled territories.

6.2. Civilian persons as victims

6.2.1. A total of 2,482 civilians died on the Serb side.

6.2.2. Killed by the enemy – direct victims

A total of 2,372 (96%) persons were killed by the enemy.

A total of 2,257 (91%) died at the hands of the Croatian side (the military, police, paramilitary groups and others), of them:

1,491 (60%) persons were killed (by firearms, various explosives, by setting them on fire, by hanging, throwing into wells and otherwise), most of them were killed in 1995 (752) in operations “Flash” and “Storm”, followed by the year 1991 when 545 people died in this way;

At least 100 (4%) persons died from shelling (including gunfire and air raids in the territory of the RSK and in refugee convoys in the territory of Republika Srpska), most of them (65) died in 1995;

At least 286 (12%) died as PoWs (they died in various ways except for suicide, in detention camps and prisons in the Republic of Croatia); 212 in 1991, 31 in 1992 and 19 in 1995;

At least 59 (2%) died otherwise (in accidents while in refugee convoys; from starvation; as a result of a lack of medicines; because of cold weather and in other ways; some of these people died in Croatian hospitals);

At least 326 (13%) died from unknown causes in Croatian controlled territories, according to VERITAS records. They were predominantly civilians who have been reported as missing and on whom there is no information about the manner in which they had died.

A total of 23 (1%) civilians died at the hands of ABiH (the largest number of them died in 1995 when the soldiers of the Fifth Army Corps of ABiH attacked refugee convoys fleeing Kordun and Banija regions during operation “Storm”, but also in earlier years when soldiers of this corps had repeatedly attacked RSK territory);

In box unknown perpetrators, there is a total of 92 (4%) persons (most of them are related to incidents in 1991 at the outbreak of the Serbian-Croatian war and they are, by and large, missing persons from the territories controlled by the Republic of Croatia under still unclear circumstances).

6.2.3. Killed on the Serbian side – indirect victims

Among civilian victims of the war on the Serb side 110 persons (4% of all civilian victims on that side) were reported. Their death was related to war and war-related incidents; however, their death/disappearance cannot be attributed to anyone on the enemy side.

They mostly include civilians who were fatally wounded in refugee convoys fleeing before the Croatian operations code named “Flash” and “Storm”, but also in some earlier incidents (64 of them had been reported as dying from natural causes; 4 had committed suicide; 6 had died in hospitals; 9 had been killed in mutual show-downs; 1 had been killed out of negligence; 2 were missing after they had been arrested by RSK police officers; 6 were killed in traffic accidents and 18 died otherwise).

6.3. Conclusion

6.3.1. Direct victims

A total of 6,119 persons (90% of all victims on the Serb side) have been recorded as victims of war and post-war on the Serb side. Of this number 3,747 were uniformed men and 2,372 civilians.

A total of 3,495 uniformed men and 2,257 civilians died at the hands of the Croatian forces (the military, police and paramilitary groups), which makes in total 5,752 persons (94% of all those who died at the hands of the enemy side).

A total of 7 persons (0.1% of all those who died at the hands of the enemy side) died at the hands of the HVO.

A total of 165 persons (3% of all those killed by the enemy side) died at the hands of the ABiH, 142 soldiers and 23 civilians.

A total of 103 Serb soldiers and 92 Serb civilians or 195 people in total (3% of all killed by the enemy side) had been killed by the hitherto unidentified, or combined 3 enemy parties – HV, HVO and ABiH.

6.3.2. Indirect victims

A total of 673 persons (10% of all victims on the Serb side) have been recorded as victims of war on the Serb side who cannot be directly attributed to any of the enemy sides, 563 were uniformed men and 110 civilians.

6.3.3. Share of Serb victims in the total population of the Republic of Croatia

According to the 1991 census taken in the Republic of Croatia, the total population was 4,784,265, of which 3,736,356 were Croats; 581,663 were Serbs and 106,041 were Yugoslavs (the figures were provided by the Statistical Office of the Republic of Croatia).

Comparing the overall losses on the Serbian side (6,792) and the share of the Serbian population in the total population of the Republic of Croatia in 1991, we come to the number of 1.16% of those killed and missing on the Serb side in the period 1990–1998.

7. Exhumation and identification

As from 2001, the competent authorities of the Republic of Croatia, either on their own or in cooperation with ICTY investigators, have exhumed at least 858 bodies of Serb victims,<sup>8</sup> of whom 566 were identified until 31 October 2009, whereas the rest are awaiting DNA test results.

VERITAS knows, at present, also of 673 grave sites of Serb victims in the territory of Croatia mostly from operations “Flash” and “Storm”, which can immediately be exhumed with a little good will on the Croatian part, as was the case in previous years.

VERITAS also collected a large number of information on possible burial sites and of individual or mass graves<sup>9</sup> of Serbs killed in all stages of the war, which are yet to be checked on the spot.

The Croatian side is obstructing the exhumation and identification of Serb victims for reasons that the disinterment of Serb victims would tarnish its “image” as “the victim of Serbian aggression” and that a large number of Serbian bodies could adversely affect the outcome of trials of Croatian generals before the ICTY in the Hague, indicted for participation in “a joined criminal enterprise whose common objective was forcible and permanent removal of the Serbian population from the Krajina region”.

Belgrade, 31 October 2009

Savo Strbac, President
DIC VERITAS

<sup>8</sup> 301 are graves in Knin, 154 graves at Gracac, 27 are graves at Korenica, 160 were exhumed at the cemetery in Petrinja, 64 bodies were exhumed at the cemetery in Dvor. All these were the victims of operation “Storm”. 58 remains have been exhumed at the cemetery at Zitnik, 49 were the victims of operation “Storm” and the rest from previous periods, including 18 bodies at the location Rizvanusa containing the victims of December 1991 from the village of Paulin Dvor, as well as at least 76 remains from minor or individual graves.

<sup>9</sup> Mass graves – locations where dead bodies had been left or thrown one on top of the other without coffins or body-bags or without any accompanying documents, mostly in secluded places (ravines, still waters, wells, cravices and similar places, precisely for the purpose of concealing the crime and for no one to ever come across them or to do so with difficulty.
